

Foundation Stage Class Teacher Person Specification

Essential Elements	Desirable Elements
Experience of teaching in Reception and understands how to engage 4 / 5 year old learners.	Experience of other year groups, especially across Key Stage 1.
Proven as a “good” class teacher or demonstrating the basis of good teaching through student placements.	Proven as an “outstanding” class teacher.
Demonstrates an ability to work as part of a team.	Has a proven record of supporting other members of staff.
Has experience of assessment within EYFS.
Has a good working knowledge of phonics.
Good interpersonal skills, and understands the importance of parental engagement in raising standards.
Has demonstrated a commitment to contribute to wider school life.	Currently offers an after school club or some other wider school activity.
Understands the role of self-evaluation for development and can demonstrate how they have utilised this and other CPD opportunities.	Has undertaken specific development work within current position – either of themselves or colleagues.
Understands the importance of formative and summative data and can interpret this and draw conclusions about future development.
Good organisational skills.
Has good ICT skills.
Wishes to develop own career	